A man looks at portraits of people killed by Chechen terrorists during a ceremony at the Dubrovka Theatre on Oct. 26 in Moscow. Ten years ago, 912 people, many of them children, were held hostage in the theater for three days by Chechen terrorists after coming to watch the musical "Nord-Ost." A raid by Russian special forces led to the death of 130 people from a powerful gas police pumped into the theater. Yuri Kadoyev, AFP/Getty Images
